

A New Online Issue of the Journal of the Canadian Historical Association

We are pleased to announce that Joan Sangster (Trent) and Steven Lee (UBC) are co-editors of a new electronic issue of the Journal of the Canadian Historical Association / Revue de la Société historique du Canada. The first volume, on "History and Theory", is now available. The co-editors are currently preparing a second issue under the theme of "Global Histories". This new journal initiative by the CHA is designed to internationalize the journal and to bring together Canadianists and non-Canadianists at the annual conference. The co-editors have been organizing three panels at the annual conference with the expectation that the papers presented there would eventually be published in the online journal. The electronic issue is peer reviewed.

Adele Perry, University of Manitoba, will co-edit the third issue. The theme for the 2008 online panels is "Migrations, Place, and Identities". Please address queries to Steve Lee (stevenhl@interchange.ubc.ca) and/or to Adele Perry (perrya@ms.umanitoba.ca).
