

CALL FOR PAPERS *

84th ANNUAL MEETING of the Canadian Historical Association

May 30-31 and June 1, 2005
UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO

2005 Congress Theme: PARADOXES OF CITIZENSHIP: ENVIRONMENTS, EXCLUSIONS, EQUITY

The 84th annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association will be held in London, Ontario at the University of Western Ontario from May 30 to June 1, 2005.

Beyond the Congress main theme, we also welcome panels and individual proposals on the following themes:

Empires Old and New
America Observed
Public Memory and Commemoration
Environment and Health

For individual papers, please submit a maximum one-page proposal and a maximum one-page curriculum vita. For panels and roundtable, please submit a maximum one-page proposal for the entire session, plus individuals proposals for each constituent contributor and a curriculum vita for each participant, including commentators. All CVs should include email and postal addresses. Correspondence can be in either English or French, and can also be submitted by email attachment.

Normally a CHA Conference session comprises three presenters, a chair, and a commentator. We encourage you to organize your own panels. Please suggest a chair and commentator, although the program committee will make the final selection. The organizing committee reserves the right to rearrange proposals for full sessions. The program committee will organize individual proposals into panels. All papers must be submitted to the commentator and other panelists one month before the conference. The papers will also be available for sale to CHA members.

Limited funding is available for the transportation expenses of conference participants. The CHA "Travel Policy" will be sent when papers are accepted.
