HGSG Student Research Awards - Call for Proposals

Focus: Student members of the Historical Geography Specialty Group are invited to submit proposals for the HGSG Research Awards. The specialty group will grant two award prizes in 2004. The award amounts will be $400 for research at the Ph.D. level, and $200 for research at the Masters level. Students seeking funds to underwrite thesis or dissertation research may submit a one-page summary of their proposed research on a topic in historical geography. The statement should spell out the research question and how the field/archival work will benefit the completion of the project and specify the collection or field research site. The award may be used to cover travel and related research expenses. Applicants must include a short budget of estimated expenses. In addition, the student's major professor must submit an e-mail correspondence to the committee to verify that the student is making progress toward conducting the research.

Deadline: February 20, 2004

THE HILDA NEATBY PRIZE IN WOMEN'S HISTORY

The purpose of the Hilda Neatby Prize in Women's History, awarded since 1983 by the Canadian Committee on Women's History at the annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association, is to encourage the publication of scholarly articles in women's history and gender history as it relates to women, in Canadian journals and books. Two prizes are awarded, one for best article in English and the other one for best article in French. Any academic article published in Canada during 2003 and deemed to make an original and scholarly contribution to the field of women's history is eligible for nomination for the 2004 Neatby Prize.

Send nominations, and 3 copies of the nominated article, before February 1, 2004 to the Canadian Historical Association, C/O the Hilda Neatby Prize Committee, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa, Ontario, K1A 0N3.

LE PRIX HILDA NEATBY EN HISTOIRE DES FEMMES

L'objectif du Prix Hilda Neatby, décerné annuellement depuis 1983 par le Comité canadien d'histoire des femmes de la Société historique du Canada, est d'encourager la publication d'articles scientifiques sur l'histoire des femmes et du genre, en relation avec les femmes, dans les revues et les livres canadiens. Deux prix sont décernés, un pour le meilleur article écrit en anglais et l'autre pour le meilleur article écrit en français. Tous les articles savants publiés au Canada en 2003 et apportant une contribution à la fois originale et importante à l'histoire des femmes sont admissibles au prix Hilda Neatby 2004.

Prière d'envoyer vos nominations, avec trois (3) exemplaires de l'article, avant le 1^{er} février 2004, à la Société historique du Canada, en mentionnant sur l'enveloppe Prix Hilda Neatby, à l'adresse suivante : S.H.C., 395, rue Wellington, Ottawa, Ontario, H3A 2T7.

PRIZE FOR BEST ARTICLE ON THE
HISTORY OF SEXUALITY IN CANADA
2004 COMPETITION

The Canadian Committee on the History of Sexuality (CCHS), a subcommittee of the Canadian Historical Association, is pleased to announce a Prize for Best Article on the History of Sexuality in Canada. The CCHS prize is designed to recognize excellence in and encourage the growth of scholarly work in the burgeoning field of the history of sexuality in Canada. The winning article will be one that makes an original contribution to the study of the sexual past from any period in the history of what is now called Canada. The prize will be awarded every second year at the Annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association. For the 2004 competition, articles published in 2002 or 2003, written in English or French, are eligible. Nominations may be made by faculty, students, editors, publishers, and self-nominations are perfectly acceptable. Please send 3 copies of the nominated article by the 1st of February 2004 to the Canadian Committee on the History of Sexuality, c/o Steven Maynard, Department of History, Queen's University, Kingston, ON, K7L 3N6.

PRIX POUR LE MEILLEUR ARTICLE EN
HISTOIRE DE LA SEXUALITÉ
AU CANADA
CONCOURS DE 2004

Le Comité canadien d'histoire de la sexualité (CCHS), un sous-comité de la Société historique du Canada, est heureux d'annoncer le deuxième prix pour le meilleur article en histoire de la sexualité au Canada. Offert à tous les deux ans, ce prix veut encourager la recherche en histoire de la sexualité au Canada et reconnaître l'excellence des travaux qui se font dans ce domaine en expansion. L'article gagnant doit apporter une contribution originale à l'étude de la sexualité et peut couvrir n'importe quelle période de l'histoire du territoire qui constitue aujourd'hui le Canada. Le prix sera décerné pendant l'assemblée annuelle de la S.H.C. à Winnipeg en mai 2004. Sont admissibles pour le concours de 2004 les articles en anglais ou en français publiés en 2002 ou en 2003. Professeurs, étudiants, éditeurs, maison de publication peuvent tous proposer des candidatures. Il est également tout à fait acceptable qu'un auteur pose lui-même sa candidature. Veuillez faire parvenir 3 (trois) exemplaires de l'article proposé avant le 1^{er} février 2004 au Comité canadien d'histoire de la sexualité, a/s Steven Maynard, Département d'histoire, Université Queen's, Kingston, ON, K7L 3N6.
