

NOUVELLES PARUTIONS RECENT RELEASES

Profiling Canada's Families, The Vanier Institute of the Family, 1994, 148 pages. A collection of statistics about almost every aspect of family life in Canada, along with a brief discussion of the meaning of facts and figures. Ethnic origins, mother tongue, marriage, divorce and cohabitation, parenthood, daycare, work and income, multi-generational families--all these issues and more are covered in this fascinating look at the Canadian families of today. Much of the statistical information used was provided by Statistics Canada. The Vanier Institute of the Family, 120 Holland Avenue, Suite 300, Ottawa, ON K1Y 0X6. Phone: (613) 722-4007.

Statistics Canada has recently released a diskette, Aboriginal Peoples Survey Community Profiles (Catalogue #89F0020XDB), designed for use by planners in Aboriginal communities. The profiles contain data on a number of topics, including Aboriginal languages, income and expenditures, social issues, education and training, housing, etc. To receive more information, contact StatsCan by fax: (613) 951-2906.

Canada's Department of External Affairs: Coming of Age, 1946-1968, by John Hilliker and Donald Barry, is the second volume of the official history of the department, covering a period of exceptional growth and international activity. The book is published in the Canadian Public Administration series of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada by McGill-Queen's University Press, at $49.94 in cloth and $29.95 in paper. Ordering information can be obtained from McGill-Queen's University Press, c/o University of Toronto Press, Order Department, 5201 Dufferin Street, Downsview, Ontario M3H 5T8, telephone 1-800-565-9523.

Diplomatic Documents and Their Users, edited by John Hilliker and Mary Halloran, publishes the proceedings of the third international conference of editors of diplomatic documents, held at the Department from May 11 to 13, 1994. The book contains both methodological and substantive papers, the latter dealing with the North Atlantic Treaty, Italian foreign policy in the 1940s, Canadian relations with the Soviet Union and the Korean War. A limited number of copies of the book are available, free of charge, from Mary Halloran, Historical Section, Corporate Communications Division, Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0G2, telephone (613) 995-3641, fax (613) 992-9346.

Le 15^e volume des Documents relatifs aux relations extérieures du Canada, édité par Hector Mackenzie, couvre 1949, année où sont survenus de nombreux événements importants, comme la signature du Traité de l'Atlantique Nord, les modifications au Commonwealth pour permettre d'adhésion de l'Inde devenue république et un virage majeur des relations commerciales vers les États-Unis. Le volume est disponible au prix de 99,95 $ (129,95 $ US hors du Canada). Pour plus d'information, s'adresser au Groupe Communication Canada -- Édition, Ottawa (Ontario), K1A 0S9, téléphone (819) 956-4800, télécopieur (819) 994-1498.

Voies parallèles: les relations canado-australiennes depuis les années 1890, par Greg Donaghy, a été publié pour marquer le centenaire de la représentation canadienne en Australie. L'étude dépeint l'évolution des relations entre les deux pays au cours du siècle dernier où ils se sont employés activement à concilier leurs intérêts politiques et économiques divergents. Pour obtenir à titre gracieux des exemplaires de cette brochure, s'adresser à Greg Donaghy, Section des affaires historiques, Direction des communications ministérielles, ministère des Affaires étrangères et du Commerce international, Ottawa (Ont), K1A 0G2, téléphone: (613) 992-6288, télécopieur: (613) 992-9346.