

CALL FOR PAPERS CONFÉRENCES ET DEMANDES DE COMMUNICATIONS

1994

Québec 8-11 septembre. L'ethnologie des francophones en Amérique du Nord 1944-1994: bilan et perspectives, colloque international organisé par l'équipe de professeurs du programme d'Ethnologie des francophones en Amérique du Nord de l'Université Laval pour commémorer le cinquantième anniversaire de la fondation des Archives de folklore et des études de folklore à l'Université Laval, et faire le point sur la discipline qui a sous-tendu les études sur la culture des francophones en Amérique du Nord. Pour plus de renseignements, prière de contacter M. Laurier Turgeon, Faculté des lettres, Célât, Université Laval, Cité universitaire, Québec (Québec) G1K 7P4 (418) 656-7200, FAX (418) 656-2019.

Sept. 23-24. "Historiographies of the Ottoman Empire," the sixth biennial conference on the Ottoman Empire, will be held at Binghamton University, in Binghamton, N.Y. The conference will focus on how historians have interpreted the history of the Ottoman past. For more information, contact Donald Quataert, Director, Southwest Asian/North African Program, PO Box 6000, Binghamton University, State University of New York, Binghamton, NY 13902-6000. (607) 777-4738. Fax (607) 777-2896.

Halifax 29-30 September. International Colloquium on Contemporary Women's Literature in France, Québec and Acadia since 1985 organized by the Department of French, Dalhousie University. A provisional programme will be prepared by April 30. All enquiries may be addressed to Michael Bishop, Department of French, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia B3H 3J5 (902) 494-2430, FAX (902) 494-2319.

The Atlantic Association of Historians is sponsoring a workshop on history and multimedia teaching at the annual meeting in Fredericton, NB, September 30 to October 2, 1994. The registration fee is $60.00 + tax. For more information contact Kathryn Hilder, Reference Department, Harriet Irving Library, PO Box 7500, University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, NB, E3B 5H5. Telephone (506) 453-4749. Fax (506) 453-4596. E-mail: Hilder@unb.ca.

Oct. 6-8. "The Third World on the Eve of the 21st Century: Perspectives, Problems and Prospects" is the theme for the annual meeting of the Association of Third World Studies, which will be held at the College of William and Mary, in Williamsburg, Va. For more information, contact John Mukum Mbaku, Association of Third World Studies, Department of Economics, Weber State University, Ogden, UT 84408-3807. (801) 626-6066.

Oct. 13-16. The 19th Conference of the Society for Utopian Studies (SUS) will be held in Toronto. SUS is an international, interdisciplinary organization devoted to the study of literary, social, and communal expressions of utopianism. For more information, contact Kenneth Roemer, Department of English, University of Texas, Arlington, TX 76019-0035. (817) 273-2692.

Oct. 14-16. 4th Conference on Canadian Business History. The 4th Conference on Canadian Business History, hosted by Trent University, will be held in Peterborough from Friday, 14 October to Sunday, 16 October 1994. Program participants from several disciplines and from across Canada will present new research that addresses principal established themes -- the organizational synthesis, regional patterns, American ownership, and the role of the state -- and newer themes -- including relationships between formal and informal economies, local business structures as social and economic institutions, professional dimensions of business development, and gendered elements in the business system. In addition to discussing current research, the conference will be an occasion for considering how best to sustain and develop the study of business history in Canada. For a copy of the program, registration information, or other information, please contact Prof. Douglas McCalla, Department of History, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario K9J 7B8. Tel.: (705) 748-1763 or 748-1740. Fax: (705) 748-1795. Email: DMcCalla@TrentU.Ca.

Oct. 27-28. INTERFACE '94 will be held in Atlanta. The annual humanities and technology conference allows professionals from a variety of fields, including engineering, computer science, history, literature, and physics, to meet and discuss issues that cut across traditional disciplinary boundaries. For more information, contact Julie Newell, Social and International Studies, Southern College of Technology, 1100 S. Marietta Pkwy., Marietta, GA 30060-2896. (404) 528-7481.

14-16 octobre. Quatrième colloque sur l'histoire du commerce canadien. Le quatrième colloque sur l'histoire du commerce canadien organisé à l'Université Trent aura lieu à Peterborough, du vendredi 14 au dimanche 16 octobre 1994. Les participant(e)s au programme venant de disciplines variées et de différentes provinces canadiennes présenteront de nouvelles recherches portant sur les principaux thèmes établis - synthèse organisationnelle, comportements régionaux, possessions américaines, rôle de l'État. De plus, de nouveaux thèmes seront abordés telles que la relation entre les économies formelles et informelles, les structures du commerce local en tant qu'institutions économiques et sociales, les dimensions du développement commercial, et l'influence du genre sur le système commercial. En plus des discussions traitant de la recherche en cours, le colloque offrira la possibilité aux participant(e)s d'explorer les meilleurs façons de maintenir et de développer les recherches sur l'histoire du commerce au Canada. Pour obtenir une copie du programme, des renseignements sur l'inscription ou tout autre renseignement, veuillez contacter Professor Douglas McCalla, Department of History, Trent University, Peterborough ON K9J 7B8. Tél.: (705) 748-176 or 748-1740. Télécopieur: (705) 748-1795. Courrier électronique: DMcCalla@TrentU.Ca.

Washington (USA) November 17-20. Ninth Biennial Conference, organized by the American Council for Québec Studies, Contact Jane Moss, President, ACQS, Colby College, Waterville, ME 04901, (207) 872-3151 or Richard Beach, Program Chair and Vice-President, ACQS, SUNY Plattsburgh, Plattsburgh, NY 12901, (518) 564-2086.

CALL FOR PAPERS CONFÉRENCES ET DEMANDES DE COMMUNICATIONS

1994

Bordeaux (France). 19-20 décembre. Séminaire de Bordeaux sur l'Espace canadien et ses représentations: Le Canada, espace de tradition ou de modernité? Une relecture des écrits des géographes français de la fin du siècle aux années 1960. Le séminaire est organisé par le Centre d'études canadiennes Michel de Montaigne de l'Université de Bordeaux III, en collaboration avec le CESURB, le SET et la commission épistémologie et histoire de la géographie du CNFG. Maison des Sciences de l'Homme d'Aquitaine, Esplanade des Antilles, Domaine Universitaire, 33405 Talence - Cédex France, tél. 56 84 68 00, fax 56 84 68 10.

Dec. 26-Jan. 2. "Teaching the Holocaust and Genocide in Universities and Secondary Schools," an international conference, will be held in Jerusalem. The conference will focus on teaching about the Holocaust and genocide from the perspectives of history, philosophy, ethics, theology, literature, law, education, psychology, and sociology. Call for abstracts by Sept. 1, 1994. For more information, contact Bernard Klein, Chair, Department of History, Philosophy, and Social Sciences, Kingsborough Community College, 2001 Oriental Blvd., Brooklyn, NY 11235. (718) 368-5417. Fax (718) 368-4654.

1995

Mar. 8-11. "Gambling with the Environment," the next meeting of the American Society for Environmental History, will be held in Las Vegas. The program committee especially encourages submission of papers on the history of arid environments, environmental justice and equity, and the last twenty-five years of environmentalism in the U.S., but papers on any aspect of environmental history are welcome. For more information, contact Theodore Steinberg, Department of Humanities, New Jersey Institute of Technology, University Heights, Newark, NJ 07102-1982. E-mail: steinberg@admin.njit.edu.

May 5-6. The Center for the History of Print Culture in Modern America presents a conference entitled "Print Culture in a diverse America" to be held in Madison, May 5-6, 1995. This conference will assess readers and their texts in the "other" America. Papers which illuminate the books, newspapers, periodicals, etc., produced by racial and ethnic minorities, women, political radicals, sexual minorities and others since 1876 will be the focus. The Center welcomes both case studies of single group experiences and those that compare the historical sociology of print in the lives of a number of groups too often placed on the periphery of power. Proposals for individual papers or entire sessions (up to 3 papers) are requested by December 1, 1994. For more information contact Wayne A. Wiegand and James P. Danky, Co-Directors, Center for the History of Print Culture in Modern America, University of Wisconsin, 4217 Helen C. White Hall, 600 North Park Street, Madison, WI 53706 (608) 264-6532, fax (608) 263-4849 James.Danky@mail.admin.wisc.edu.

May 11-14. The American Association for the History of Medicine will hold its 1995 meeting at the University of Pittsburgh. Call for abstracts by Oct. 15, 1994. Papers may focus on any subject in the history of medicine but must represent original work not already published or in press. For information about abstract requirements, write to Mary Lindemann, Chair, Programme Committee, History Department, Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA 15213. For conference registration information, write to Jonathon Erlen, Local Arrangements Chair, 123 Northview Dr., Pittsburgh, PA 15209.

May 12-14. The Edmonton and District Historical Society and the University of Alberta History Department are co-hosting a conference at the Edmonton Convention Centre on 12-14 May 1995 to mark the 200th anniversary of Edmonton's founding. Proposals are invited on a wide variety of subjects that relate to Edmonton's history, including pre-settlement, fur trade, religion, education, business, labour, sports and recreation, women, the capital city, the Edmonton-Calgary rivalry, and the future of the city. Both popular and academic presentations are welcome. Two publications are planned in association with the conference. The first, which will be published prior to the conference, will provide biographies of a number of prominent Edmonton founders and leaders. The second will consist of a selection of the best papers presented at the conference. The deadline for papers to be included in the founders and leaders publication is September 1994. Papers accepted for this publication may also be presented at the conference. The deadline for receipt of all other papers for presentation at the conference is January 1, 1995. Abstracts (two pages maximum) and requests for further information should be sent to Edmonton's Bicentennial: Historical Reflections, c/o Bob Hesketh, History Department, 2-28 Tory Building, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, T6G 2H4; Fax 492-9125; or by electronic mail to BHesketh@gpu.srv.ualberta.ca.

Rennes (France). 23 mai. Colloque sur la création biographique. Le colloque se propose de réfléchir à l'acte de création dans la biographie, pour répondre à la question: la biographie, pour quoi faire? Pourquoi se révèle-t-elle fructueuse, ne serait-ce qu'en termes éditoriaux? On se placera donc à deux points de vue: celui du producteur de la biographie, depuis la biographie historique et critique jusqu'à la fiction biographique sous ses diverses modalités, l'intérêt se portant principalement sur ce qu'a de particulier ce type d'acte d'écriture. On se placera aussi au point de vue des «utilisateurs»: le spécialiste de littérature, l'historien, le sociologue et, bien entendu, le lecteur moyen. Les langues du colloque sont le français et l'anglais. Contact: Marta Dvorak, Centre d'études canadiennes Rennes 2, Université Rennes, 35043 Rennes Cédex France, tél. 99 33 51 36, fax 99 33 51 75.

CALL FOR PAPERS CONFÉRENCES ET DEMANDES DE COMMUNICATIONS

June 1-2. "World War II: A 50-Year Perspective," Siena College's ninth annual international, multidisciplinary conference, will be held in Loudonville, N.Y. The meeting will focus on the year 1945, but papers may deal with broad issues of earlier years, too. Call for papers by Dec. 1, 1994. For more information, contact Thomas O. Kelly, II, Department of History, Siena College, 515 Loudon Rd., Loudonville, NY 12211-1462. (518) 783-2595. Fax (518) 783-4293.

June 8-11. The Quiet in the Land? Women of Anabaptist Traditions in Historical Perspective. The first academic conference on Anabaptist women's history is planned for June 8-11, 1995 at Millersville University in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. The purpose of the conference is to bring together historians and other scholars of women to examine women's experiences in Anabaptist traditions from the 16th through the 20th centuries (Amish, Mennonite, Hutterite, Brethren, and other communal societies and Pietist groups). The Coordinating Committee encourages proposals that represent a broad range of disciplines and consider a spectrum of difference in such areas as race, class, region, sexuality, and nationality. Proposals for single papers/presentations should include a 500-word abstract and a one-page curriculum vitae. Complete sessions should include a brief description of the session, names of presenters, curriculum vitae and paper abstracts. All materials should be submitted by Oct. 1, 1994 to Diane Zimmerman Umble, The Quiet in the Land Conference, P.O. Box 1002, Millersville University, Millersville, Pennsylvania, 17551. For more information, call 717-872-3233, fax 717-871-2003, email di-umble@daffy.millersv.edu. In Canada, M. Epp at 519-650-0819.

L'Association d'études canadiennes tiendra son congrès annuel dans le cadre du Congrès des sociétés savantes à l'Université du Québec à Montréal. Le thème du congrès sera: Immigration et ethnicité dans un contexte comparatif. Ce sujet vise à stimuler la recherche comparative et innovatrice dans le domaine de l'immigration et des études ethniques. Les communications conjointes de deux chercheurs ou plus d'une même discipline ou de disciplines différentes sont les bienvenues. Elles peuvent porter entre autres sur des sujets tels que le sexe, la classe sociale, la politique, les politiques gouvernementales ou la structure familiale. Nous invitons également les propositions traitant de sujets qui ne sont pas comparatifs, mais innovateurs tels que la deuxième génération d'immigrants, la religion, la culture ou la période après la Deuxième Guerre mondiale. L'Association d'études canadiennes encourage fortement la participation étudiante. Un certain soutien financier pour étudiantes et étudiants est disponible dans le cadre du Programme d'aide à la participation étudiante de l'AEC. La date limite pour présenter un résumé de 250-350 mots de votre projet est le 28 octobre 1994. Pour plus de renseignements, veuillez communiquer avec: Agent de programme et de liaison, Association d'études canadiennes, a/s UQAM, V-5130, C.P. 8888, succ. Centre-Ville, Montréal (Québec) H3C 3P8. Tél. (514) 987-7784. Télécopieur: (514) 987-8210. Internet: c1015@er.uqam.ca.

The Association for Canadian Studies will be hosting a conference during the Learned Societies at the Université du Québec à Montréal. The topic of the conference will be: Immigration and Ethnicity in a Comparative Context. This subject is intended to stimulate comparative and innovative research in the field of immigration and ethnic studies. Joint papers by two or more authors from the same or from different disciplines are most welcome. Papers could deal with such topics as gender, class, politics, government policy, family structure, among others. We also invite submissions that, while perhaps not comparative, deal with innovative topics, such as the second generation of immigrants, religion, and culture, or with the period after the Second World War. Graduate students are also invited to submit a proposal. Some support for students is provided under the ACS Student Participation Programme. Deadline for submissions of 250-350 word abstracts is October 28, 1994. For more information, please contact: Programme and Liaison Officer, Association for Canadian Studies, UQAM, V-5130, P.O. Box 8888, Station Centre-Ville, Montreal, Québec H3C 3P8. Tel: (514) 987-7784, Fax: (514) 987-8210. Internet: c1015@er.uqam.ca.

The Material History Review is planning an issue for the fall of 1995 on the subject of the military artifact, tentatively entitled "The Military Artifact: a Contemporary Perspective". The focus will be on military artifacts and what they can tell us concerning larger issues such as the nature of the military and war itself, patriotism, valour, technological change, gender, etc. For more information please contact the guest editor for this edition of the MHR, Dr. Cameron Pulsifer, c/o the Canadian War Museum, 330 Sussex Drive, Ottawa, K1A 0M8. (Tel. 819-776-8655; fax 819-776-8657). Papers should preferably be accompanied by illustrations. The deadline for submissions will be 28 February 1995. •