POLICY FOR TRAVEL SUBSIDIES FOR THE CHA ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN GUELPH, JUNE 1984

SSHRCC, through SSFC, will likely grant the CHA funds to help defray some of the travel and accommodation costs of the 1984 conference.

A) To oversee the distribution of these funds the CHA executive has named an ad hoc committee composed of the Treasurer (Chairman), the CHA President (or his delegate), and the 1984 Programme Chairman (or his delegate).

B) The CHA will pay as much as possible of travel and accommodations costs for members and invited guests, but does not undertake to pay the full extent of such expenses. All should first apply to their own institutions for partial subsidy.

C) Applicants for subsidies must be CHA members or invited guests participating in the annual conference and have registered with the CHA.

D) In certain cases travel advances will be granted upon application to the Treasurer before May 16, 1984.

E) All who wish to receive subsidies from the CHA must complete and submit a Travel Expense Claim, accompanied by original receipts, to be received at the CHA office by June 25, 1984.

F) Categories of participants, in order of priority, are as follows:

1) CHA President: accommodation for four nights; all travel expenses; hospitality and incidental expenses.

2) Participants: For those giving papers, commentators, animateurs, chairmen of panels, panelists, those reporting to CHA Council or the AGM: Charter return airfare, or mileage at $0.20 mile/$0.12 Kilometre (not to exceed charter return airfare); bus service to and from airports; accommodation at $38 for two nights; incidentals at $20 for two days; CHA registration fee of $25. Chairpersons of sessions (other than panels) will be considered for travel funds after the aforementioned groups have been considered.

DIRECTIVE CONCERNANT LES SUBVENTIONS AUX DEPLACEMENTS
POUR LE CONGRES ANNUEL DE LA SHC A GUELPH, JUIN 1984

Le CRSHC, par l'intermédiaire de la FCSS, accordera à la SHC, une certaine somme pour aider à défrayer le transport et le séjour de ceux/celles qui assisteront à la conférence annuelle de 1984, à Guelph.

A) L'Exécutif de la SHC a confié la distribution de ces fonds à un comité ad hoc, composé du président (ou de son représentant), du trésorier et du président du Comité du programme de 1984.

B) La SHC défraiera, dans la mesure du possible, les coûts de transport et de séjour des membres ou des invités(es) qui assisteront à la conférence. Elle ne s'engage pas à rembourser ces coûts au complet. Tous(tes) les participants(es) devraient d'abord s'adresser à leur institution pour être subventionnés, ne serait-ce qu'en partie.

C) Les personnes qui feront application pour obtenir des subventions doivent être membres en règle de la SHC ou être invités(es) à participer au congrès et s'y être inscrits(es) sous la couverture de la SHC.

D) Dans certains cas, on pourra obtenir des avances de voyage en faisant la demande au trésorier avant le 16 mai 1984.

E) Les personnes qui souhaitent bénéficier d'une subvention de la SHC devront remplir un formulaire de réclamation de frais de voyage, accompagné des reçus justificatifs. Le tout devra parvenir au bureau de la SHC, le 25 juin 1984, au plus tard.

F) L'ordre de priorité selon lequel les participants(es) seront éligibles aux subventions est le suivant:

1) Pour le président de la SHC: chambre à l'hôtel pour quatre nuits, tous frais de transport, frais de représentation et faux-frais.

2) Participants: ceux(celles) qui feront des exposés, les commentateurs(trices), les animateurs(trices), les présidents(es) ou les participants(es) des tables rondes, les rapporteurs au Conseil ou à l'Assemblée générale annuelle: avion aller-retour, vol nolisé, ou un tarif de $0.20 le mille/$0.12 le kilomètre (ne devant pas excéder le coût d'un vol nolisé); service d'autobus (aéroport-hôtel et retour); séjour pour deux nuits au tarif de $38; allocation de $20 pour les faux-frais pendant les deux jours; frais d'inscription de $25 à la SHC. La question des frais de déplacement des présidents(es) des sessions (non sidération après que la situation des groupes précédents aura été réglée.
